CRIME IN EGYPT.

CRIME IN EGYPT.

The prevalence of crime in Egypt has led Egyptian Government circles and the Egyptian Frame to discuss the hest remedy for the evil. It is stated that the ordinary modes of punishment are not having the desired effect of closed, in crime. To reserve to the use of the Jurbanishment of the control of the subscience of t antage to that "other country," however, is doobtful.

Besides the fact that on the face of it, it does not look very honourable for the Sudan to be used as the dumping ground for the refuse of Egyptian municipal and provi cial rabble, the scheme suggested may prove a source of much trouble to the country. Who can guarantee that such imported criminals let losse in the remote regions of the Sudan apan of eventually prove a noxious nor this Government.

The Sudan is in need of more people to develop its agricultural and industrial removed. The sudan is in need of more people to develop its agricultural and industrial remove.
